

BUILDING ENERGY RATING ASSESSOR TRAINING

(SINGLE SUBJECT CERTIFICATION AT HETAC LEVEL 6)

Course Objective

Satisfactory completion of this course will qualify candidates to register as certified Building Energy Rating (BER) Assessors for New Dwellings through Sustainable Energy Ireland.

Course Content

The Learning Outcome requirements for the course are based on the Specification for Assessor Training Programmes for Building Energy Rating of New Dwellings as revised by Sustainable Energy Ireland in 2008 and include the following:

- Building Energy Rating (BER) in Ireland
 - Background to Energy Performance of Buildings Directive
 - Building Regulations Part L and Technical Guidance Document to Part L
 - Background to Dwellings Energy Assessment Procedure (DEAP)
 - Administration System
-
- Building Construction and Lighting Assessment
 - Building Energy Performance – Fabric and Ventilation Systems
 - Space and Domestic Hot Water Heating systems and their Controls
 - Overall Energy Performance, CO₂ emissions and BER Labels
 - BER Advisory Reports for New Dwellings and Design Advice Opportunities

Entry Requirements

A Level 6 Qualification in an approved construction related discipline.

Key Information

DURATION	30 Hours over 5 Wednesdays (2pm to 5pm & 6pm to 9pm)
QUALIFICATION	Single Subject Certification at HETAC Level 6
COST	€1,890
START DATE	October 2008