Any person who formally registers for a full-time or part-time undergraduate or postgraduate course of study is considered to be a student of the University. All registered students have accepted and are bound to abide by the rights and responsibilities and by such other regulations as are made from time to time.

III. GOVERNING BODY AND ACADEMIC COUNCIL

The policies and business of the University are overseen by a statutory Governing Body appointed by the Minister for Education and Skills. The Governing Body members represent the University, the State, staff, students, the community and businesses. It meets regularly to ensure that the University is participating in standards development and strategic development.

The Academic Council is appointed by the Governing Body to assist in the planning, co-ordination, and development of third level standards and activities. The Council meets several times a semester to discuss academic related developments or issues. Members of the Academic Council sit on committees associated with exams, exam infringements and disciplinary matters. Students are represented via the Students' Union on both the Academic Council and the Governing Body.

IV. PROGRAMME REGULATIONS

Regulations relating specifically to your programme of study are provided separately through your academic department. The procedures and regulations published in this handbook refer to matters of a general nature that apply across the University as a whole.

Students registering to repeat and attend are liable for fees (see RR.B.1.6.3 (b) Repeat and Attend Fees), and are charged on a pro-rata basis for the repeat modules. They enjoy the same access to University facilities as full time students. Students who have paid to repeat and attend are registered as full-time students.

The right to the place on the programme/ module, having lapsed, cannot be reinstated except in exceptional circumstances.

1.4 - REQUIRED ADMISSIONS REGISTRATION DOCUMENTS

A number of programmes have specific activities that require evidence of the student's ability to participate in their programme. The relevant form for completion by your doctor will be supplied by the Admissions Office prior to registration.

1.4.2 - PROCEDURE AND RESPONSIBILITIES RELATING TO THE VETTING OF STUDENTS FOR PLACEMENT IN ENVIRONMENTS WITH CHILDREN OR VULNERABLE ADULTS

The National Vetting Bureau (Children and Vulnerable persons) Acts 2012-2016, makes it mandatory for students working with children or vulnerable adults to be vetted by the Garda Síochána National Vetting Bureau.

The MTU Kerry offers a number of educational and training programmes that require students to undertake placements, with external agencies, which will bring them into contact with children and vulnerable adults and in which they will assume positions of trust. To ensure the protection of the public, and justify public trust and confidence, MTU Kerry is committed to ensuring that only suitable candidates are allowed to undertake these programmes.

MTU Kerry shall not permit any person to undertake relevant work placement or activities on behalf of the organisation unless the organisation receives a vetting disclosure from the National Vetting Bureau in respect of that person. The University completes the Garda Vetting process via the National Vetting Bureau, to assess the suitability of such applicants

The MTU Kerry require students on a number of designated programmes to be vetted by the National Vetting Bureau of An Garda Síochána.

Details of the relevant programmes and more information on the procedure are available online <http://www.ittralee.ie/en/InformationAbout/GardaVetting/>

To ensure the protection of the public and justify public trust and confidence, the University reserves the right to refuse admission or de-register students who have not satisfactorily completed or are unable to satisfactorily complete the Institute's vetting process.

1.4.3 - GARDA VETTING APPLICATION FORM

New students and students transferring from other HEIs will be requested to complete the National Vetting Bureau application if they are registered on programmes where there is mandatory Garda Vetting. Students are invited to complete on-line vetting and must include any civil or criminal convictions and cases pending. Omissions or any false statements of misrepresentation will be deemed a serious matter by the University and may lead to deregistration. If there are discrepancies between the Garda Vetting report and the applicant's self-declaration, the authorised signatory will contact the applicant to review the disclosures.

Statutory Declaration Form

As part of the Registration process, each student is required to complete a Statutory Declaration form. The Statutory Declaration Form states that the student will inform the University of any information relevant to their application or their continued term of study at the University. Any offence and/or convictions arising after the student has been registered in the programme of study must be disclosed to the University immediately.

The Institute (University) Vetting Committee has the right to revisit the status of any student in light of any additional information received by the University, after the individual has completed registration.

The Institute (University) Vetting Committee also reserves the right to request a student cohort or individual student to re-apply to the National Vetting Bureau process for Disclosure, at any time, during their course of studies at the University. If the Institute's Vetting Committee deems the student unsuitable for working with children or vulnerable adults, the student will be de-registered from their course of studies.

1.4.4 - INSTITUTE (UNIVERSITY) VETTING COMMITTEE (IVC) MEMBERSHIP

The student is invited to meet with the relevant Head of Department, Placement Coordinator and the Liaison Person for Garda Vetting, to discuss details of the convictions and the actions to be taken going forward. They will also be advised of the supports that are available in the College.

The Institute Vetting Committee may deem convictions to be of a major/serious nature. In relation to convictions of a major/serious status, the nature of which could potentially indicate a serious risk to children and vulnerable adults or other members of the public, the student will be required to meet with the Liaison Officer, Class Tutor, and Head of Department and advised that owing to the nature of their conviction(s) that a number of different options are possible, up to and including de-registering the student, on the recommendation of the Institute Vetting Committee.

Following the meeting the student will be advised in writing of the Institute's decision. The student may, within two weeks of the date of the letter, make an appeal to the Registrar to have their case reviewed by an Appeal Committee on Garda Vetting, comprising of the Registrar, two Heads of School/Centre, and a Student Counsellor appointed by the Academic Council. Academic integrity is an essential component of third level education. All students must follow principles of intellectual honesty and standards to earn their qualification.

Whether an undergraduate or post-graduate student, all examinable elements (e.g. continuous assessment (CA), project work, reports, dissertation, thesis, etc.) must be the student's own work. It is accepted that in the production of assignments, students will use textbooks, journals, material accessed from the Internet, or other sources. Students must reference and acknowledge correctly by following standard referencing practice. Students must indicate when any material used is being quoted directly and citing the source. Students must acknowledge also the influence or inspiration of other sources even when they are not being quoted directly. The assignment bibliography should incorporate reference to all other people's works and ideas using the standard referencing practice. Failure to comply with this standard may constitute an act of plagiarism.

Prior to submission of any work that contributes to the students grades, the onus is on the student to ensure they have complied with QA procedure A5.25a Guide to Citations Referencing and Avoiding Plagiarism, which is available through the library website and at <http://www.ittralee.ie/en/InformationAbout/QualityAssurance/>

2.1.1 - PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism, as that term is understood and applied by the Institute, is the presentation of the work of another (or of others) as one's own work, without acknowledgement, in order to gain academic credit. Plagiarism also includes the recycled presentation of one's own work previously submitted for academic credit and/or award. It applies to text, graphics, tables, formulae, code or any representation of ideas in print, electronic or any other media.

Plagiarism can of course result from a deliberate decision to cheat, but it can also occur through carelessness, without any fraudulent intent. It is crucially important for students to familiarise themselves with correct referencing practices and the nature and boundaries of plagiarism. "I did not intend to plagiarise" is not an acceptable excuse. Plagiarism is regarded as a disciplinary matter.

2.1.2 - FABRICATION

Fabrication is defined as the falsification of data or information in any formal academic exercise. This includes making up data to back up arguments or inventing quotations. Data falsification is where false claims are made about research performed, including selective submitting of results to exclude inconvenient data and/or generating bogus data. Fabrication is a serious academic offence.

2.1.3 - COLLUSION

Collusion is the presentation by a student of an assignment as their own, which is in fact the result in whole, or in part of unauthorised collaboration with another person or persons. All students involved in alleged collusion will be subject to investigation. This includes students willingly supplying unauthorised material (colluders) in the act of academic misconduct.

2.1.4 - AVOIDING PLAGIARISM

It is important to understand that plagiarism can take on several different forms. It may involve the whole or part of your work (essay, project etc.). Part plagiarism may vary from copying passages from other sources without citation to situations where you do cite your sources, don't copy the wording directly but rely too heavily on the way the original sources are written when writing your own work. Plagiarism may also involve the use of false or misleading citations. While citations and references, which are poorly or improperly written, may not necessarily imply plagiarism, if the reader is unable to locate the sources as a result, then the possibility of plagiarism occurs. It is the duty of the student to avoid such suspicions by observing agreed citation and referencing conventions.

The different forms in which plagiarism occurs are described below. It is essential to avoid such practices when presenting your academic work for assessment or publication.

- Verbatim Copying without Citations

At the most dishonest end of the spectrum this involves presenting a complete work (essay, project, software code etc.) written by another party as your own work. Otherwise, it may involve partial copying, the inclusion of passages or elements copied directly from other sources without any indication that this has been done. This partial copying may vary in its level of dishonesty from one sentence being copied from another source to large parts of the work being copied from one or more sources.

- Verbatim Copying with Citations

Even if the appropriate citations are included to show the sources of the ideas or information presented, verbatim copying is dishonest unless it is made clear which sentences or passages have been quoted and from where. While excessive use of quotations properly indicated is not dishonest, it is likely to be poor academic practice in that it amounts to having others write your work to a large extent.

- Excessive Reliance on Wording and Structure of Sources with Citations

Even if all sources are appropriately cited, it is dishonest to rely too heavily on the way sources are written when writing your own work. Taking sentences and passages from cited sources and then slightly altering the wording is not academically honest in that it is assumed that in your work the ideas you have taken from elsewhere have been filtered through your understanding and then expressed in your words. Such heavy reliance on the way sources are written still amounts to stealing the writing style of others and stealing the way they expressed their ideas. To avoid being guilty of this kind of plagiarism, one should not begin by copying and pasting sentences and passages from other sources into one's own work but by summarising in your own words the ideas you want to derive from those sources. A low match score on turn it in does not necessarily indicate that the work is free of this kind of plagiarism.

- Excessive Reliance on Wording and Structure of Sources without Citations

This involves greater dishonesty than doing so with citations, as above. Not only are you presenting the way the work is written as your own when it is largely the writing of others but you are also presenting the ideas or information taken from other sources as your own without giving any credit to the original authors.

- False or Misleading Citations

It is obviously dishonest to include citations which are not real (i.e. they are made up) and it is also dishonest to cite sources which are not the actual source from which the ideas or information was drawn. A variation on this involves including citations which are only very loosely connected with what you have written. This may be done to lend a false sense of academic authority to your writing. Normally sources cited should have focused specifically on the topic being discussed and not simply made some passing comment or allusion to the matter in the context of a work which has a different focus. It is also crucial that citations and references are properly written so that the reader can access the original sources.

In particular, it is not acceptable to cite a book or lengthy report without including the page number or numbers if the relevant idea or information is only in a specific passage or section of the book. If the contents of the book or report as a whole is being drawn on or referred to, then page numbers will not be necessary. The same applies to the citation of websites; the specific page or pages within the website from which the idea or information was drawn must be shown unless the whole site is relevant.

• Recycling Own Work

Self-plagiarism is also dishonest. You should treat your own previous work like the work of another and cite it in a similar way. It is academically dishonest to repeatedly present the same research, ideas or arguments in different works without alerting the reader to the fact that you are drawing on your own previous work. Students must treat academic work they have presented for assessment purposes as if it were published work. If a prior presentation (e.g. an essay or project) is drawn on in the course of writing a subsequent work, another essay or project etc., then the prior work must be properly cited in the same way as if it were the work of another.

• Referencing

"Giving credit to the original author by citing sources is the only way to use other people's work without plagiarising" (iParadigms, 2014). It is therefore extremely important to always provide references for your work, whether this is a thesis, essay, or report, etc. Referencing helps to show that you have researched your topic in detail and are aware of key sources (Davis and Plaice, 2011, pp.148-149).

According to Cottrell (2008, p.130) there are 5 main reasons for providing references:

1. It is a courtesy to acknowledge the person whose ideas you have used or referred to.
2. It makes it clear that you are not trying to claim someone else's work is your own (which is plagiarism).
3. Referencing your source helps your readers find the original texts if they need to check them.
4. If you need to check something later it will be easy to find it again.
5. People will have more confidence in the points that you make if they know where your information comes from, while thoroughness in referencing suggests that you have checked your facts.

How to Cite and Reference in Your Work

Citing: where you refer to the source you are using within the text of your essay.

Reference List: this is the detailed list of sources that you have specifically referred to or cited in the text. It is included at the end of your document. The Reference List is organised in alphabetical order by author surname.

You could also sometimes be asked to produce a Bibliography which is a list of everything you have read while researching for your assignment.

Please refer to both the Library's 'Brief Guide to Citations and Referencing' and the Library website for further detail and examples and QA procedure A5.25a Guide to Citations Referencing and Avoiding Plagiarism, at <http://www.ittralee.ie/en/InformationAbout/QualityAssurance/>

2.1.5 - DEALING WITH ACADEMIC DISHONESTY OR OTHER ACADEMIC OFFENSE(S) OR MISCONDUCT.

All suspected cases of plagiarism will be dealt with through the Institute's Anti- Plagiarism Policy and Procedures.

EARC will investigate documented instances of alleged plagiarism, fabrication, collusion and other breaches of academic integrity notified to the Office of the Vice President Academic Affairs and Registrar. After a full investigation by the EARC, the student may be disqualified, expelled or other sanction imposed as deemed appropriate by the Committee.

Until the allegation of academic misconduct (plagiarism, fabrication, collusion or other breaches of academic integrity) against the student/graduate has been proven, all parties associated with the issue and subsequent investigation are required to observe confidentiality. A breach of confidentiality in relation to these matters will be regarded as a serious matter.

2.2 - ATTENDANCE AND CLASS PARTICIPATION

Students are required to pursue a course of study by attendance at and participation in classes, lectures, tutorials, practicals, workshop classes, drawing classes and project work or any academic work assigned to you as part of the programme, as timetabled by the Institute. Students will be required to access textbooks and other materials as stipulated by the lecturers from time to time. A registered student who is repeating and attending one or more modules is also governed by these regulations

2.2.1 - RECORDING OF ATTENDANCE

Student attendance is monitored using electronic recording of attendance. Students are required to record their attendance at every scheduled or timetabled class/ lectures/tutorials/practical's, etc. by 'swiping-in' using their T-Card (Student Card). Card Readers are situated at the entrance of each room.

In the event that the electronic swipe-in system or card-reader is unavailable for whatever reason, an alternative attendance recording method will be implemented. Failure to comply with the recording of attendance may lead to withdrawal and other sanctions. (See RR.B.1.9 WITHDRAWAL OF WHOLE-TIME THIRD LEVEL STUDENTS).

2.2.2 - UNSATISFACTORY ATTENDANCE OR PERFORMANCE

Where the Institute decides that a student's attendance or standard of performance is unsatisfactory, the student shall be informed in writing and the student shall be given an opportunity to explain their unsatisfactory attendance or performance. The Institute may apply one or more of the following:

- permit the student to rectify their unsatisfactory attendance or performance
- refuse permission for the student to enter or sit examinations
- withhold the results of some or all examinations taken, including continuous assessment results, from the purview of the appropriate Examination Board
- require the student to repeat one or more modules in the following Academic
- Year deem the student to have withdrawn from the Institute. (See Sections RR.B.1.9.4 and RR.B.1.9.5)

2.3 - CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT

In many modules, a proportion of the final grade achieved is allocated based on the grades awarded for Continuous Assessment (CA). CA's are more likely to be formative and learner-involved as students learn by working throughout the module. CA's can take the form of any daily work (e.g. essays, quizzes, presentation and participation in class), projects/term papers, thesis, dissertation or practical work (e.g. laboratory work, fieldwork, clinical procedures, drawing practice) or any other form of examinable work. Students can monitor their learning experience, performance and progress in the module(s) during the academic year by reflecting on their CA grades.

The examination processes normally consist of both continuous assessment and formal end-of-semester, term/year examinations. However, some modules may be assessed by continuous assessment only. This is governed by the Approved Course Schedule for the course. Students should acquaint themselves with the requirements for assessment by consulting the module descriptors and assessment strategies described therein. The library of module descriptors is available on the web (www.ittralee.ie, select your programme and select 'View Course Modules'). Marks/grades awarded for continuous assessments are provisional.

2.3.1(a) - Continuous Assessment (CA) work can comprise of in-class examinations, essays, homework projects or reports. It is structured to assist and direct students in their study programmes. It should be used by students to help them identify their academic strengths and weaknesses and the areas where they must take remedial action.

2.3.1 (b) - Each student shall present the work on the date and in the specified or required format. Work for continuous assessment records will not be accepted from a student for grading after the due date except in exceptional circumstances. In some programmes, especially for practical work, a minimum attendance regulation may also apply.

2.3.2 (a) - Students are given their grades for continuous assessment work during the academic year. Where a student has not performed a satisfactory proportion of continuous assessment work, or whose continuous assessment marks are such that a pass in the examination module as a whole is unlikely, the student should take appropriate action, where feasible, before the final examination. For example, a student could seek advice on study skills, time management or talk to their lecturer about their individual performance.

2.3.2 (b) - A viva voce is an oral examination where an examiner will ask questions of the student being examined (e.g., project presentation, CA alternative repeat strategy.) The student will answer the question in such a way as to demonstrate their knowledge of the module. In exceptional circumstances, an Intern or extern examiner may decide to hold a viva voce examination on any piece of continuous assessment or other examination and the mark for the viva voce will be the mark for that continuous assessment element.

2.3.3 (c) - Students must retain portfolios of continuous assessment work and any other assessment material returned to them by their lecturers for presentation to Intern and/or Extern Examiners, if and when required.

CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT RESULTS ISSUED TO THE STUDENT ARE PROVISIONAL UNTIL THEY HAVE BEEN RATIFIED BY THE ACADEMIC COUNCIL

2.4 - EXAMINATION REGULATIONS

Examinations provide the opportunity for candidates to demonstrate what they have learned in their programme. Examination regulations are fundamental in ensuring that all candidates can complete their examinations in an ordered and composed environment. Students must comply with the Regulations. The Institute's Examination Regulations are available on Blackboard and are posted outside Examination Centers. Any alleged violation(s) of the regulations are a serious matter and will be investigated accordingly.

2.4.1 - EXAMINATION ENTRY

2.4.1(A) - All students who are duly registered and who are in good financial standing with the Institute will be registered automatically for all first sittings of examinations.

2.4.1(B) - REPEAT EXAMINATION ENTRY (SEE ALSO RR.B.1.5.3)

Students cannot be entered for repeat examinations unless their repeat examination registration is complete and the fee is paid (if applicable) by the deadline specified by the Examinations Office. Students must register online for the Autumn Examination session.

2.4.1(C) - EXAM MODULE DISCREPANCIES AND CORRECTION

The Examinations Office will email each student details of module registration. On receipt of same, the onus is on the student to notify the Examinations Officer, by e-mail on or before the date specified, of any discrepancies. The student should retain a copy of such notification. Notification of discrepancies after the specified date will be subject to an administration charge (see RR.B.5, Fees and Fines).

2.4.2 - EXAMINATION TIMETABLES

Examination Timetables and other relevant information are available at <https://examtimes.ittralee.ie>. Timetables are subject to change particularly in relation to dates, times and venues. It is the responsibility of each examination candidate to check their timetable regularly in the event of changes after initial release.

2.4.3 - EXAMINATIONS VENUE RULES

Candidates are students presenting for examinations and have agreed to and accept the rules and responsibilities governing academic discipline and standards.

- A. Candidates must present themselves at the examination room at least thirty minutes before the start of their first examination and at least fifteen minutes before the start of subsequent examinations. Doors to the exam rooms will be closed 5 minutes prior to the commencement of each exam. Students who arrive at exam rooms after this time will not be allowed into the exam room until after the exam has commenced. No additional time will be granted to students at the end of the exam.
- B. In exceptional circumstances a candidate may be admitted to the examination after the examination papers have been distributed and the examination has commenced.
- C. Candidates may leave an Exam Centre once the Attendance Roll for all candidates in the Exam Centre has been signed and at least one hour has elapsed. Any candidate who is obliged to leave an exam centre temporarily must attract the attention of the invigilator. If the invigilator is satisfied that the grounds to leave are legitimate, he/she will arrange for the candidate to be accompanied. Any time absent from the examination centre will be specified on a candidate's examination script. In addition, any candidate who leaves the exam centre prior to the last 15 minutes of an exam will have his/ her time of departure noted on their script.
- D. It is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure they park their vehicle so as not to cause an obstruction or in a manner which may require a candidate to leave the examination session/examination hall. If a candidate is required by the Garda, or Officer of the Institute to leave the exam hall in order to move the vehicle, such candidate will not be allowed to return to the exam hall.

- E. A candidate must sit in the place assigned to him/her for the duration of the examination, unless otherwise directed by the supervisor.
- F. Candidates must have their Student T-Card with them and present it for all Examinations. They must place the t-card at the top right-hand side of their assigned desk. Candidates will not be admitted to an exam centre without a valid t-card (or in special circumstances a valid drivers licence or passport.)
- G. A candidate must obey all instructions given by the Examination Co-ordinator and/ or Invigilator. The EARC (Section B 2.6) will be convened to investigate any instances of non-compliance and the Committee may make reasonable inferences in relation to the non-compliance with the instructions given by the Examination Co-Ordinator and/or Invigilator.
- H. Candidates will be supplied with answer books, graph paper and mathematical tables. However, they must supply their own pens, pencils, drawing instruments, erasing fluids, etc.
- I. Candidates are not permitted to bring unauthorised supplies or personal property into the examination hall. The Institute does not accept any responsibility for loss of student personal property left outside of the exam venue. Any personal property belonging to the student when left outside the examination venue will be confiscated by Institute staff or contracted official (e.g. Security Guard) if such property is causing a disturbance of any type (e.g. mobile phone or any device activating a sound such as an alarm, incoming call, incoming text, etc.).
- J. A candidate who has a query on an Exam Paper should complete the Examination Paper Query Form. The form will be provided to the candidate on request by an invigilator during the exam. Once the form is complete, it must be handed to the invigilator before leaving the exam centre. The completed form will be brought to the attention of the internal examiner.

2.4.4 - CONDUCT DURING EXAMINATIONS

During an examination session, a candidate may not:

- A. Bring with him/her into the Examination Hall or Practical Area, nor have on him/her, nor within their reach, any book, paper, memoranda, or notes, other than those provided by the supervisor.
- B. Bring with him/her into the examination hall jackets, bags, pencil cases, glasses case, sweets or drinks other than bottled water/soft drink not exceeding 500ml. Responsibility for the safety of these items rests with the candidate.
- C. Bring with him/her into the Examination Hall or Practical Area, nor have on him/her, nor within his/ her reach a watch. To be in possession of any type of watch in an exam centre is a breach of exam regulations and a fine of €50 will apply.
- D. Bring with him/her into the Examination Hall or Practical Area, nor have on him/her, nor within his/ her reach, any electronic devices such as mobile phones, smart phone, iPhone, iPod or any other media player or device with storage capacity. Mobile phones left outside of the examination hall must be powered/turned off (including alarms etc.) Mobile phones that are confiscated in the examination hall or mobile phones confiscated due to causing a disturbance outside of the examination hall will be removed to the Examinations Office. Students/candidates may have to wait a week to collect these and will face a fine of a minimum of €50.00. The Examinations Officer has the authority to refer the matter for investigation to the EARC. An Institute Official has the right to review text messages and other content which appear to be relevant to the investigation based on section 2A (1) (d) of the Data Protection Acts 1988 and 2003. (Students will be advised when they can collect their phones/other media device accordingly. Where the item remains uncollected for a period of more than 90 days from the date it was first confiscated it will either be destroyed or donated to a charity at the Institute's discretion.)

- E. Bring with him/her into the Examination Hall or Practical Area, nor have on him/her, nor within his/ her reach, any device, which has an inherent storage capacity or provides access to stored information. An Institute Official has the right to review content that appears to be relevant to the investigation based on section 2A (1) (d) of the Data Protection Acts 1988 and 2003.
- F. Any student for whom English is not their first language may use paper bi-lingual dictionary (word for word format only). Conditions apply - further information can be obtained from the Examinations Officer.
- G. Aid or attempt to aid another candidate/person.
- H. Impersonate another student or allow themselves to be impersonated by another individual for the examination.
- I. Obtain or attempt to obtain aid from another candidate/person.
- J. Communicate or attempt to communicate with another candidate/person.
- K. View or attempt to view another candidates answer book during the examination.
- L. Write on any mathematical table or other tables provided during the examination, calculators or calculator covers, mathematical or drawing instruments, or on any part of the person or furniture.
- M. Write anything not relevant to the subject matter of the examination in his/ her answer book.
- N. Remove any leaves from their answer book.
- O. Remove from the examination centre any books, papers, mathematical tables or other materials supplied by the examination invigilator/co-ordinator.
- P. Bring with him/her a USB key into a lab practical exam (if a USB key is required, then this will be issued by the exam invigilator/co-ordinator to the student prior to the commencement of the exam).
- Q. Store exam related material in any drive other than the drive specified by the invigilator/examiner.
- R. Behave so as to disturb other candidates/person.
- S. Borrow drawing, writing or other materials during the examination.
- T. Leave the examination hall/building and return during the examination period unless the examination Supervisor is satisfied that the need to leave the examination session is genuine (e.g. illness, urgent need to use the toilet). A candidate who leaves or is required to leave the examination hall/ examination building, and is unsupervised may not re-enter the exam hall. The only exception to this is in the event of an emergency evacuation of the examination hall for health and safety reasons

2.4.5 - BREACH OF EXAMINATION REGULATIONS

Breach of examination regulations is a serious matter. Breaches of regulations which are of an academic nature will be investigated by the Examinations and Assessments Review Committee (EARC). (See RR.B.2.6 for Membership and Role and Function). Breaches of regulations which are of a non-academic nature will be investigated by the Institute Disciplinary Committee (IDC). (See RR.B.3.3 for Membership and Role and Function.)

2.4.6 - DISQUALIFIED CANDIDATE

Any candidate who violates the examination rules and regulations may be disqualified or any other sanction as deemed appropriate be imposed by the appropriate committee. The following apply to disqualified candidates:

- All examination results presented to the Board by a disqualified candidate are declared null and void.
- A disqualified candidate may not present before the Examinations and Assessments Review Committee again for a period of one year.
- A disqualified candidate at the award stage of a course is not eligible for an award higher than a Pass Classification.

2.4.7 - EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

- A. Where serious difficulties arise which affect the attendance or performance of a candidate in an examination (e.g. illness, an accident), the candidate should submit details, on the 'Special Circumstances Form' to the Examinations Officer within 3 days of the examination for consideration. Communications received regarding absence from examination(s) will be reviewed by Examinations Board and deliberated on by the Examinations Board.
- B. A Candidate may not communicate with a lecturer relating to an examination once the formal semester examinations have commenced and until the results have been published. If a student wishes to inform the Institute of any extenuating circumstances which affected their performance during an examination they should communicate directly with the examinations office within 3 days of the examination in question as per (a) above. Inappropriate communication by students to Lecturers in relation to examinations may be referred to the Examinations and Assessments Review Committee (EARC).

2.4.8 - VIVA VOCE EXAMINATION

An Intern or Extern Examiner may hold a viva voce examination (see RR.B. 2.3.2(b) for definition) on any paper in any written or practical Examination. The mark for this viva voce examination may be recorded by the Board of Examiners as the mark assigned for that paper.

2.4.9 - NUMBER OF ATTEMPTS

A student who has not passed examination module(s) may be permitted or required to resit the examination up to a maximum number (normally 3) of attempts in that module.

- A. A candidate shall not have more than four consecutive examination sessions to pass an examination module based on the syllabus module material examined at the first Examination Session which the Institute deems the candidate eligible to sit. Subsequent attempts at passing the examination module shall be on the basis of the current syllabi. Where a module is no longer available, the Institute shall determine comparable modules which the candidate shall be required to take.
- B. Number of attempts (Clinical Placement - Nursing Students). Nursing students are required to undertake clinical placement at each stage of their programme. A nursing student may have a maximum of 2 attempts (first initial attempt, plus one repeat attempt) in total to pass each Developing Competence in Nursing Practice (DCNP) module. Failure at the 2nd attempt (repeat attempt) will result in deregistration from the programme.

2.4.10 - Repeat Examinations for modules on Programmes delivered on a cyclical basis are only available at the Autumn Session in an Academic Year when the module is not being delivered.

2.5 - AWARDS AND RESULTS

Boards of Examiners are convened following each examination session to consider the results of each student who has formally entered for the examination. Results are issued following a meeting of a Board of Examiners and remain provisional until approved/ ratified by the Academic Council. When necessary, the Examinations and Assessments Review Committee (EARC) will also be convened to consider requests for recheck/ review of examination results, and to investigate alleged examination infringements.

The Board of Examiners and the EARC will allow for full and frank discussion of all borderline cases before a final decision is made. A borderline case is defined to be any candidate presenting for an award whose overall percentage grade is within 1 percentage point of the threshold of an award classification. In addition, EARC may adjust marks/ grades and/or the overall award granted to a student by the Board of Examiners, having reviewed the profile of results subsequent to any broadsheet amendments.

2.5.1 - ISSUE OF EXAMINATION RESULTS

The Board of Examiners, or when appropriate, the Examinations and Assessment Review Committee (EARC), shall determine an overall result for each candidate. This is the only legally determined result of the Examination. Results approved by the Examination Board will be available online on the Institute's student intranet (i.e. Self Service Banner.) The date of online publication will be regarded as the official date of results. After final approval of both semester examination results by Academic Council, students will be provided with an individual Online Statement of Examination Results. A student requesting additional copies of their academic transcript will be charged an administration fee (See RR.B.5, Fees and Fines).

2.5.2 - To assist students in evaluating their performance, an online statement of Examination Results will be issued to students. The module results specified in the Statement of Results are indicative of performance. They are not determined formally by the Board. Statements of Results will not be issued until all outstanding fees are paid and any 'Holds' have been lifted (a hold may be applied if Garda Vetting, disciplinary procedures etc. are pending).

2.5.3 - VIEW SCRIPT

A candidate may request to view their own examination script and related examination material, as appropriate, for formal examinations organised by the Examinations Office. The candidate must submit their request in writing to the Examinations Officer. The candidate, when viewing the requested material, may be accompanied by a nominee of their choice. The Examinations Officer or their nominee will be in attendance for the viewing. The candidate may not copy or attempt to copy in any way the material nor may write on the script. The facility is to VIEW only and not anything else.

Requests to view documentation (outlined in RR.B. 2.5.3 View Scripts) for modules:

- which are being considered by the Examination and Assessment Review Committee as part of a recheck/ review procedure;
- in which the overall grade/result has yet to be determined by the Examination Board; will not be processed until the Examination and Assessment Review Committee has made its final determination.

An administration fee, per module, will be charged for the processing of the above requests. (See RR.B.5, Fees/Fines)

2.5.4 - STAFF/STUDENT MEETINGS

Following the issue of results, lecturers involved in the specific assessment will be available to students (as specified by the Examinations Officer) for feedback on the result achieved. Students must adhere to the guidelines issued by the examinations office with reference to the specified time in which such a meeting will take place. Such consultations aim to give formative feedback to students, in particular to those who may need to repeat.

2.6 - EXAMINATIONS AND ASSESSMENTS REVIEW COMMITTEE

2.6.1 - MEMBERSHIP

The Examinations and Assessments Review Committee consists of:

- The Vice President of Academic Affairs and Registrar or nominee (Chairperson)
- Head of School (Nominated by the Chairperson)
- Head of Department (nominated by the Chairperson)

Head of School/Head of Department may not be from the same School.

- Three elected academic staff members of the Academic Council

The quorum shall be four and must include at least one academic staff representative.

The Vice President Academic Affairs and Registrar may co-opt:

- Additional persons onto the Committee to ensure both genders are represented;
- Additional persons from other third level institutions or other external bodies where additional expertise is required.

Students' Union representative may attend in an observer capacity and only at the Review/Recheck EARC meetings.

2.6.2 - FUNCTIONS

The role of the EARC is to consider/investigate and decide upon matters of an academic nature, including:

- A. requests for recheck/review of examination results;
- B. alleged examination infringements;
- C. alleged academic dishonesty including plagiarism.

In investigating the matters in 2.6.2, the EARC has the role and function of an Examination Board.

When dealing with matters relating to (2.6.2 (a)) review or recheck of examination results, the decision of the EARC is final and the matter will be given no further consideration by any other Institute committee. In dealing with the other matters (2.6.2 (b) or 2.6.2 (c)), the decision of the EARC may be appealed by the student to the Examinations and Assessments Appeals Committee (EAAC). (See Section 2.9.3)

2.6.3 - DECISIONS

All decisions of the Examinations and Assessments Review Committee (EARC) shall be by majority vote. In the event of a tie, the Chairperson shall have a casting vote.

2.7 - RECHECK OR REVIEW OF PROVISIONAL EXAMINATION RESULT(S)*2.7.1 - REQUEST FOR RECHECK AND/OR REVIEW

A candidate may request a recheck or review of provisional examination results issued by the Board of Examiners. However, examination results, which have been deliberated upon by the Examination and Assessment Review Committee (EARC) or Examination Assessment Appeals Committee (EAAC), may not be the subject of a review or recheck. A candidate may request a recheck or review of marks for one or more examination modules in accordance with the procedures in this section. A request for a recheck or review must be received by the Examinations Officer, on the Examination Recheck/Review Request Form E1, signed by the candidate, by the date specified by the Examinations Office. Details/deadlines are available on Canvas.

A request for a recheck must be accompanied by the appropriate fee (per module). A request for a review must be accompanied by the appropriate fee (per module) (See RR.B.5 for fee applicable). In the event of a revision of a mark/grade and/or overall result as a result of a recheck or review, the appropriate fee will be refunded.

2.7.2 - RECHECK AND REVIEW

- A recheck consists of a check of the recording and compilation of marks.
- A review consists of a re-consideration of the decision by the Examination Board in view of additional information provided by the candidate.
- A recheck or review may cause a mark/grade and/or overall result to be increased, decreased or remain unchanged.

2.7.3 - GROUNDS FOR RE-CHECK

A recheck will be carried out where the provisions of RR.B. 2.7.1 above have been complied with.

2.7.4 - GROUNDS FOR REVIEW

The completed Examination Recheck/Review Request Form E1 must clearly identify the student's t-number, programme of study and module title for which a review is sought, specify the grounds for which the review is sought, and must contain all the information which the candidate requires to be taken into account in the review.

The grounds for review must be specified under one or more of the following headings, which in the opinion of the candidate, is valid:

- A. Where the candidate claims the examination regulations or procedures of the Institute have not been properly implemented or
- B. There is a significant variation between the candidate's performance in the written examination compared to
  - their continuous assessment in the specified module and/or
  - their performance in other modules in that examination session (normally, this would be not less than 20% of the maximum marks or the equivalent alphabetical grade) or
- C. Compassionate circumstances related to the candidate's examination situation of which the Board of Examiners were unaware (Ref RR.B.2.4.7). A rationale must be provided as to why the Special Circumstances Form was not forwarded to the Examination Board for consideration.

Where a request for a review is not granted, a recheck of the relevant module(s) will be carried out if requested by the candidate, where the provisions of RR.B.2.7.1 have been complied with.

If during the formal examination period a candidate deems that their performance, in the formal written end of semester/end of year examinations, organised by the Examinations Officer, has been affected due to extenuating circumstances e.g. illness, then the candidate must submit in writing and using the Special Circumstances Form, to the Examinations Officer, the circumstances in relation to same, within three working days of their final written examinations.

Please note that reviews will only be considered where the EARC is satisfied that the nature of the compassionate circumstances is such that it was reasonable for the student not to have notified the relevant Examination Board.

2.7.5 - THE EXAMINATIONS AND ASSESSMENTS REVIEW COMMITTEE

The Examinations and Assessments Review Committee may, having considered the issues, decide to:

- Reject the request for a review, or
- Uphold the request for review and carry out the review.

The Examinations and Assessments Review Committee shall decide, having considered the evidence presented to it, the outcome of the review.

The candidate shall be notified of the outcome of the review.

2.7.5 - STATUS OF RESULTS

Normally, reviews/rechecks will be decided upon by the Examinations and Assessments Review Committee prior to the adoption of results by the Academic Council of the Institute.

If, as a result of a review/recheck, an amendment is recommended by the Examinations and Assessments Review Committee to the provisional examination results, such amended results will be submitted to Academic Council for endorsement. Where a decision of an Examinations and Assessments Review Committee is such that a final result for the candidate will not be available by the date of adoption of results by the Institute, the provisional results will be issued to the candidate and will be submitted to the next scheduled meeting of the Academic Council for endorsement.

All damage must be made good as far as possible before user privileges are restored. Removing any piece of IT equipment from Lecture Theatres, Classrooms or Computer Laboratories is strictly prohibited and is treated as a serious offence that will be investigated by the Disciplinary Committee. Removal of such items will also cause disruption to classes and it will affect other staff and students who use these facilities in carrying out their work.
- M. Places may not be reserved in laboratories. However, class groups may be timetabled for access in non-class periods. Faults, failures or malfunctions observed for any type of computer hardware or software must be reported immediately to the Lecturer or the Computer Services Helpdesk. This policy deals with the use of all forms of social media, including Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Wikipedia, all other social networking sites, and all other internet postings, including blogs.

The contents of our IT resources and communications systems are the Institute's property. Therefore, students should have no expectation of privacy in any message, files, data, document, facsimile, telephone conversation, social media post conversation or message, or any other kind of information or communications transmitted to, received or printed form, or stored or recorded on our electronic information and communications systems. # STEPS TO TAKE WHEN CONCERNED ABOUT A STUDENTS MENTAL HEALTH

IT'S AN EMERGENCY

I'm concerned about a fellow student who is experiencing mental or emotional distress and is in need of immediate attention...

Examples of someone who requires immediate attention:

- A possible or definite overdose Call emergency 999 or 112
- Very abusive/threatening or a danger to themselves on-campus - seek help from Security 0667191676(NC) OR # 4181(SC) and off-campus - contact Tralee Garda Station 066 7102300
- Talking about not being around and/or giving possessions away
- Expressing self-destructive or suicidal ideation, either verbally or in writing
- Expressing feelings of hopelessness
- Behaving in a bizarre manner

What can I do?

- Try not to act alone. If possible, engage with another person.
- Contact the Student Health Centre or other appropriate service immediately.
- If it is safe to do so, remain with the student until support for you and the student arrives.

I'M CONCERNED

I'm concerned about a fellow student who: appears withdrawn, low in mood, tearful and worried and is struggling with college...

Be aware of the types of on-campus student services supports available to students. Know about other local community supports available.

If you feel comfortable you could recommend to the student to visit a member of the student services support team or for them to contact their Head of Department, their Class Tutor, the Students' Union, the Student Health Centre or their own GP.

I tried that

If your suggestion is rejected and you are still concerned, contact any member of the support services yourself to get advice and support of the issue. You can also contact your Head of Department, Class Tutor or a member of the Students' Union for their help and guidance.

Remember that you are not a Counsellor and the best way to help someone that you are concerned about is to refer them to the right support. Keep any communications or conversations about the issue with the individual confidential and mind your own health also.
